ORDER: -

The petitioner claims that he worked as a contract labourer with the second respondent and its predecessor. In pursuance of the directions issued by this Court, and schemes framed by the respondents, recruitment of such persons was undertaken by issuing notification, dated 15.11.2002. The petitioner claims to have appeared therein along with certain others. The respondents declared that none of the participants are qualified to be appointed. The petitioner challenges the action of the respondents in disqualifying him.

2. Heard learned counsel for the petitioner and learned counsel for the respondents.

3. The issue involved in this writ petition was considered in W.P.No.5158 of 2003 and batch. Through judgment, dated 28.10.2004, this Court found fault with the action of the respondents in treating all the participants in the selection process as disqualified. An observation was made to the effect that the individual candidates are entitled to be informed of the reasons of their not having been selected. The said judgment has become final.

4. Hence the writ petition is disposed of directing the respondents to consider the case of the petitioner for the post of L.D.C/Typist, and in case he is not selected, they shall communicate the reasons therefor, to the petitioner. This exercise shall be completed within eight weeks from the date of receipt of this order. There shall be no order as to costs.
